

Thy Life Was Giv'n For Me 6s

A Major. Frances Ridley Havergal, 1859

Ed Johnson-Williams, April 2026

1. Thy life was giv'n for me, thy blood, O Lord, was shed, that I might ran-somed be, and quick - ened from the dead;

2. And thou hast brought to me down from thy home a - bove sal - vat-ion full and free, thy pard - on and thy love;

3. O let my life be giv'n my years for thee be spent; world fett-ers all be riv'n, and joy with suff-ring blent:

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are written below each staff, with the first three lines of the hymn. The music is written in a simple, accessible style, using eighth and quarter notes, with some rests and a final half note on each line.

thy life was giv'n for me; what have I giv'n for thee? Thy life was giv'n for me, thy blood, O Lord, was shed great gifts thou brought-est me; what have I brought to thee? And thou hast brought to me down from thy home a - bove thou gav'st thy - self for me, I give my - self to thee. O let my life be giv'n my years for thee be spent;

The second system of the musical score continues the hymn. It also consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are written below each staff, continuing the previous lines. The music continues with the same simple, accessible style, using eighth and quarter notes, with some rests and a final half note on each line. The system ends with a double bar line.
